

EXECUTIVE EDUCATION

EMERGING LEADERS PROGRAM

Emerging leaders are high-achievers who continually develop new skills to inspire others, overcome challenges, and achieve outstanding results. Do you have the critical leadership strengths and management skills to achieve more?

Become a Transformational Leader

The Management and Organizations faculty at Michigan Ross is recognized as one of the world's best departments and develops cutting-edge knowledge and research. These core faculty lead this dynamic five-day program leveled up to meet you where you are in your career journey. Emerging leaders are high-achievers in their current roles whose vision and decision-making help their organization to overcome challenges, inspire others and achieve results. You'll learn all of the foundational leadership skills that successful leaders must master to deliver results including DEI coaching change management, team leadership, and personal development strategies – and receive coaching on how to leverage these next-level practices to achieve your career and organizational goals.

“Great program! The most valuable aspects were how important themes were taught and integrated into real-world situations, the post-program resources, and the diversity of program participants.”
