Dear Graduates,

Welcome to the Michigan Ross commencement ceremonies for the Class of 2018! Today is your day. We celebrate your accomplishments, your dedication, and your future success.

What you've achieved is nothing short of amazing. The hard work you put in—juggling the demands of a rigorous curriculum, student club activities, and maintaining lasting relationships while preparing for the start of your careers—is not only incredible, but inspiring.

On behalf of the Michigan Ross faculty and staff, I would like to say thank you. Our mission is to create a better world through business, and this would be an impossible endeavor without you. Your personal and educational growth has left a lasting mark that permeates beyond this campus. You created real innovations, partnered with real companies, and made real business decisions that will impact millions of people across the world—and you did all this before even completing your degrees.

You are now part of a family of more than 50,000 alumni from 103 countries, who are here to support you in the rest of your journey. We encourage you to participate in alumni clubs and events as well as lifelong learning opportunities and courses. We also hope you contribute to your school's success by becoming a Ross student mentor, sponsoring a club or activity, or simply helping fellow Ross alumni achieve their professional goals.

It has been a true honor to serve as your dean. I have enjoyed being part of your academic experience and I hope that the next stage in your life exceeds your greatest expectations. May your future shine bright and reflect upon the legacy you built here.

On behalf of the entire Michigan Ross community, I wish you continued success in your professional and personal pursuits.

Congratulations and Go Blue,

Scott DeRue

DARYL A. BROWN II // MBA '18

Prior to pursuing an MBA, Daryl spent six years at General Electric (GE Healthcare and GE Capital) with roles in finance, risk management, and sales. At Michigan Ross, Daryl served as the president of the inaugural Ross MBA Council, the student government organization that oversees school-wide initiatives, clubs, and funding for the full-time MBA community. He also served as the co-managing director for the Zell Lurie Commercialization Fund, a student-led, pre-seed venture capital fund at Ross. Daryl was named a 2017-2018 Zell Lurie Institute Scholar for his efforts to advance entrepreneurship at Ross and the greater U-M community. Post graduation, Daryl will enter Dow Chemical's General Management Leadership Development Program.

STUDENT SPEAKERS

MARA CURRAN MACLEAN // BBA '18

Mara came to the University of Michigan to explore her interests in business law and art history. As president of the Global Scholars Program, founding member of WeListen, and Campus Day Leader, Mara has enjoyed an exciting four years. She credits her mentors and friends in Phi Chi Theta Professional Business Fraternity for the greatest sense of community at Ross. After internships at the Wall Street Journal and time spent abroad in Scotland, she is ready to move to Washington, D.C. and work for the Department of State. Mara thanks her professors, friends, and beloved family for the unwavering support and many laughs.

SCOTT MICHAEL SKINNER // MBA '18

Scott is a San Jose State University graduate whose past careers include entrepreneur, journalist, Peace Corps Volunteer, and nonprofit manager. At Michigan Ross, Scott was a project leader in the new Living Business Leadership Experience course, working for real estate development firm The NRP Group. Scott is very excited to join The NRP Group full time after graduation. While at Ross, Scott also served as president of his section, co-president of the Entrepreneur and Venture Club, VP of clubs on the MBA Council, and was a proud member of the MBA student band Risky Business. Scott is incredibly grateful for the opportunities that Ross has given him and even more grateful for the relationships he's developed with his classmates and colleagues.

STUDENT AWARDS

CLASS OF 2018 RECOGNITION AWARDS

Student award recipients were selected by their graduating peers for being exemplary role models who display continuous dedication to the Ross School of Business.

THE FRANK S. MORAN DISTINGUISHED LEADERSHIP AWARDS are presented to two graduating students who have made outstanding contributions to improve the business school experience for students, staff, and faculty, and have been active in all aspects of the Michigan Ross community. One award is given to a student in a graduate program, and another award is given to a BBA student. Both are supported by a special endowment honoring Frank Sullivan Moran. Frank Moran was not just a successful business leader, he also was a philosopher and educator who cared deeply about helping people.

THE ROSS GLOBAL CITIZENSHIP COMMUNITY SERVICE AWARDS are presented annually to the graduating students who have made exemplary contributions to their community – both at Michigan Ross and beyond. Each award recipient designates the charity of his or her choice to which the award stipend will be donated. Conceived in 1998 by students of the Ross Global Citizenship Club, this award is supported by an endowment created through gifts from club members, students, faculty, staff, and alumni.

THE MICHIGAN ROSS OUTSTANDING LEADERSHIP AWARDS recognize graduating students who have made impactful contributions and demonstrated outstanding achievement within the Master of Accounting, Master of Management, Master of Supply Chain Management, Evening MBA, Global MBA, and Weekend MBA programs. The Sanger Leadership Center is the sponsor of this award. Sanger's mission is to build a more connected, creative, and prosperous world, one leader at a time.

ARIANA ALMAS // MBA '18
GRADUATE FRANK S. MORAN LEADERSHIP AWARD

Ariana arrived at Michigan Ross with a mission to explore all the ways business can make a positive societal impact. She supported an education-focused NGO in Cambodia for MAP, worked with small business owners during Ross Open Road, and completed her internship working on diversity and inclusion projects at Microsoft. On campus, Ariana served as an active member of the Consortium for Graduate Study in Management and the Center for Positive Organizations +LAB Fellowship. She also served as the first VP of Diversity, Equity, & Inclusion on the MBA Council and a co-president for Service Corps Alumni. Passionate about intra- and entrepreneurship, Ariana is excited to join Microsoft's HR rotational program and also explore a potential "side hustle" upon graduation.

GRACE ANNE NASR // BBA '18
UNDERGRADUATE
FRANK S. MORAN LEADERSHIP AWARD

Grace is a Rochester, Mich. native, graduating from Ross with a minor in German. During her time on campus, Grace served as chair of an executive commission in the Central Student Government, was selected as a Carson Scholar, and studied abroad in Germany and Slovakia. Finding her home within Ross through BBA Council, Grace was elected president and worked with students and staff to create an inclusive and supportive community. These experiences shaped her undergraduate years and fulfilled her passion of community improvement on campus. After graduation, she will be joining General Motors in Detroit. Throughout this journey and onto the next, Grace thanks the leaders in her life for their support and love: her parents, siblings, classmates, friends, teachers, and mentors.

BRIANA FENG // BBA '18
MICHIGAN ROSS GLOBAL CITIZENSHIP AWARD

Briana is from Rochester Hills, Mich., and is graduating with a BBA and a minor in German studies. During her time at Michigan, Briana served as president of the Association for Chinese Economic Development, an organization dedicated to providing a platform for students to learn about the impacts of China's development on the global economy. Briana also attributes two organizations in particular for shaping her Michigan experience: Phi Chi Theta Professional Business Fraternity and Wolverine Crypto Trading. Briana interned at Deloitte & Touche and McKinsey & Company in past summers, and will be joining a blockchain startup on the West Coast after graduation. She has selected Kiva Microfunds, a crowdfunding platform for low-income entrepreneurs in over 80 countries, to receive a donation in her name.

ANDREW WALTER HATFIELD // MBA '18
MICHIGAN ROSS OUTSTANDING LEADERSHIP AWARD

Andrew came to Michigan Ross to enact positive change. During his previous three careers as an educator and entrepreneur in Japan, a firefighter and paramedic for the City of Dearborn, and a project manager for MSF/Doctors Without Borders internationally, Andrew learned it would take more than subject matter expertise and good intentions to respond to the world's most challenging humanitarian crises. He chose a Ross MBA to improve his operational, analytical, and managerial capabilities. Continuing his education, Andrew chose a career in consulting with the intention of one day returning to the humanitarian sector. Andrew completed his MBA with the loving support of his wife, Rosalie, and one-year-old daughter, Alexandria.

CASSANDRA HOFFMAN // MAcc '18
MICHIGAN ROSS OUTSTANDING LEADERSHIP AWARD

Cassie earned her BBA from Michigan Ross in 2016 and is graduating with a Master of Accounting. Her involvement on campus is defined by her passion for community involvement and positive impact. Cassie served as the MAcc Student Association philanthropy chair, where she worked with Cornerstone Schools in Detroit to help students realize their full leadership potential. She was also a Center for Social Impact Nonprofit board fellow and a part of the Michigan Community Leaders Program. Her interests are in sustainability, technology, and accounting and she strives to combine these in the future assurance and financial reporting spaces. Upon graduation, Cassie will join Plante Moran. She is grateful for all the opportunities at Ross and endless support from the faculty, her peers, and her family.

KOSUKE KIKUCHI // MBA '18
MICHIGAN ROSS OUTSTANDING LEADERSHIP AWARD

Originally from Japan, Kosuke spent 11 years in the automotive business at Panasonic Corporation. During his time at Michigan Ross, Kosuke focused on business strategy and data management and analytics. He was a board member of the Asia Business Conference, was involved in Data Insight & Action Group, and also participated in a social behavior change project for the Innovation In Action competition. After graduation, Kosuke will lead strategic business creation at Panasonic.

JIPENG (JIM) LUO // MSCM '18
MICHIGAN ROSS OUTSTANDING LEADERSHIP AWARD

Born in Lanzhou, China and raised in Toronto, Canada, Jim obtained his bachelor's degree in neuroscience and biology from the University of Toronto. After graduating, he relocated to Michigan and worked as an engineering project manager in the automotive industry. Jim arrived at Michigan Ross to explore the evolution of global supply chains and their data-driven digital transformations in completing his master's degree in supply chain management. Jim was elected to represent his fellow classmates as class president and helped to establish the Master of Supply Chain Management Student Association. Jim is sincerely grateful to his fellow classmates, the Ross faculty, the Specialty Master's Program staff, and his family for their unyielding support on this memorable journey.

DAVID F. MCMAHON // MBA '18
MICHIGAN ROSS OUTSTANDING LEADERSHIP AWARD

Dave has spent the last nine years as an officer in the U.S. Air Force. He graduated from the United States Air Force Academy in 2009 with a bachelor's degree in management. He spent the first five years of his career as an intelligence officer in the special operations community, deploying twice in support of Operation Enduring Freedom in Afghanistan. After receiving an assignment to the University of Michigan to instruct ROTC, he was accepted into the Evening MBA Program and started in fall 2015. He has recently separated from active duty and accepted a job as a customer success manager with Microsoft, and he and his wife Caitlin will be relocating to Boston in July.

ALI RAYMOND // MBA '18
MICHIGAN ROSS GLOBAL CITIZENSHIP AWARD

Ali came to Ross to pursue her interests of diversity and inclusion, emerging market development, and organizational strategy. At Ross, she was the director of operations for the Social Venture Fund, the co-president of Net Impact, served the Diversity, Equity and Inclusion committee as the inclusion chair lead, and organized the social impact track for the national MBA LGBTQ conference. Prior to Ross, Ali worked as a project and program manager across industries including nonprofits and for-profits in Russia and Kazakhstan, U.S. startups, and the United Nations. Upon graduation, Ali will join Johnson & Johnson's HR rotational program. Ali selected the Ruth Ellis Center, a Detroit area workforce training and social service agency for runaway, homeless, and at-risk lesbian, gay, bisexual, and trans youth of color, to receive support in her name.

DREW VANDRESE // MM '18
MICHIGAN ROSS OUTSTANDING LEADERSHIP AWARD

Drew hails from Marquette in Michigan's Upper Peninsula. A 2016 graduate in political science and history, he remained with Michigan's hockey program for a fifth year before beginning his studies at Michigan Ross. A man of many interests, education has been paramount for Drew. He plans on attending law school in the future and credits his mentor, Red Berenson, for instilling in him the ambition to gain a graduate degree in business as well. Drew hopes to utilize his education and experience to create change through working in government. Drew thanks his family for encouraging fiercely independent thinking, Coach Berenson for his guidance, and the MM cohort for trusting him as president.

FACULTY AWARDS

NEARY TEACHING EXCELLENCE AWARDS

The Neary Teaching Excellence Awards are selected by the student body in recognition of outstanding contributions to their academic learning experience at Michigan Ross. All awards are presented at the respective program's commencement celebration. The stipends that accompany the awards are made possible by the generosity of Robert D. Neary, BBA '55, and Janet E. Neary, AB '54. Mr. Neary's career spanned 38 years with Ernst & Young, and both he and Mrs. Neary have been actively involved with the university since graduation. The Nearys' support of these awards affirms their belief that teaching excellence is largely "the ability to make the pursuit of knowledge an exciting endeavor . . . the kind of excitement that is contagious and long-lasting."

RYAN BALL
FULL-TIME MBA TEACHING EXCELLENCE AWARD

Ball is the Coopers and Lybrand, Norman E. Auerbach Assistant Professor of Accounting. His research focuses primarily on understanding how high-frequency economic activities affect and are affected by low-frequency accounting information using a mixed data sampling framework.

DAMIAN BEIL

ROMAN KAPUSCINSKI
MSCM TEACHING EXCELLENCE AWARD

Kapuscinski is the John Psarouthakis Research Professor of Manufacturing Management, chair of technology and operations, and professor of technology and operations. His research focuses on supply chain management and the intersection of operational aspects with marketing and finance.

BRAD KILLALY
MM TEACHING EXCELLENCE AWARD

Killaly is the associate dean for the Full-Time MBA and Global MBA Programs and clinical assistant professor of strategy. His research is in the fields of strategy and organization theory, with specific interests in theories of firm change and its effect on performance. His current research focus is in the healthcare industry.

REUVEN LEHAVY
EXECUTIVE MBA TEACHING EXCELLENCE AWARD

Lehavy is the Victor L. Bernard—Pricewaterhouse Coopers LLP Collegiate Professor of Accounting and faculty director of the Paton Accounting Center. His research interests include the usefulness of sell-side analyst valuation outputs; firms' use of accounting report discretion; and textual properties of analyst reports and corporate financial disclosures.

LAURIE MORGAN
WEEKEND MBA TEACHING EXCELLENCE AWARD

Morgan is a lecturer in technology and operations as well as management and organizations. She teaches courses in statistics, negotiation, and leadership. Her academic research focuses on career outcomes of women and men professionals, including engineers, physicians, MBAs, and college graduates in general.

VENKY NAGAR
EVENING MBA TEACHING EXCELLENCE AWARD

Nagar is the KPMG Professor of Accounting and Teitelbaum Research Scholar at Michigan Ross. His research on accounting and organizational performance has been prominently cited by top U.S. companies (Google, Facebook, etc.) in their Supreme Court and Federal Appeals Court amicus briefs on employee non-discrimination and equality.

LORI ROGALA
BBA TEACHING EXCELLENCE AWARD

Rogala is a lecturer in business law who teaches BBA, MM, and MBA students. Prior to her academic career, she practiced law at a national law firm advising businesses on a range of corporate matters. Lori is a passionate educator who emphasizes how students can have a positive impact on society by using the law for competitive advantage while being ethically responsible business leaders.

WELCOME AL

Dear Graduates:

Congratulations on your graduation! On behalf of the Alumni Board of Governors, it is my pleasure to welcome you into the Michigan Ross alumni community.

Commencement marks the beginning of a new chapter in your lives—and it's an opportunity for you to make your ties to Michigan Ross even stronger. We are here to make sure that your degree continues providing you personalized benefits throughout your lifetime. We are deeply proud to stand alongside you as alumni.

No matter where your career takes you, Michigan Ross is committed to helping you succeed.

In the following pages, you'll find incredible resources now at your disposal through the Alumni*Advantage* program. Whether you take part in one of the 50 Ross alumni clubs across the world, take advantage of our tuition-free Executive Education courses, or enjoy the many other opportunities available, we encourage you to stay connected to Michigan Ross. Michigan Ross alumni truly are the Leaders and Best in business and live in over 100 countries around the world. Welcome to our community!

Go Blue!

ALUMNI ADVANTAGE

Amazing things are in store for you!

We are excited to continue to support you throughout your career with AlumniAdvantage.

NETWORKING AND EVENTS

There are nearly 50,000 Ross alumni all over the world — make some connections! Network with fellow alums, professors, and current students and learn from a presentation on a hot topic in business at our alumni club events.

CAREER RESOURCES

Get personalized, one-on-one advice from Ross career staff to help you with your goals, whether it's a career pivot, progression, or something entirely new. You can also use our online databases, webinars, job boards and networks such as AlumniFire and the Ross alumni LinkedIn group.

LIFELONG LEARNING

You learned a lot at Ross — but the world is constantly evolving. We support your educational needs as they continue to grow. As a Ross alum, you will receive full-tuition scholarships for open enrollment Executive Education courses, you are able to audit courses in Ann Arbor, and can participate in webinars wherever you are.

VOLUNTEERING OPPORTUNITIES

Alumni play a critical role in the student experience at Ross. Volunteering is a great way to promote your organization, recruit world-class talent, and make a difference in students' lives. Become an ambassador, speak with student clubs, offer your guidance and expertise, be a mentor — the possibilities are endless.

Visit michiganross.umich.edu/alumniadvantage to view the comprehensive list of offers.

REUNION | 18

Every year, we welcome back hundreds of alumni for Reunion, where we celebrate favorite memories, lasting friendships, and everything that makes the Michigan Ross community special. Held right before the U-M Homecoming game, this gathering gives graduates and students time to connect, network, and have fun. Reserved seats for the game are available as a package with tailgate tickets, and we also coordinate with local hotels to reserve rooms for alumni during Homecoming weekend.

Join us on 10.06.18 as we welcome you to the alumni network!

THE VICTORS

Hail! to the victors valiant,
Hail! to the conqu'ring heroes,
Hail! Hail! to Michigan
the leaders and best.

Hail! to the victors valiant,
Hail! to the conqu'ring heroes,
Hail! Hail! to Michigan
the champions of the West.
