Overview

The goal of The Positive Leader program is to create significant change using positive organizational practices.

Content is based on research conducted by the founders of the Center for Positive Organizational Scholarship (POS) at the Ross School of Business. The program provides frameworks and tools, derived from positive psychology and strategic process, to help you leverage your personal leadership style to promote and strategically enable organizational achievement and success.

This training experience offers the opportunity to challenge your own strategic mindset in addressing the challenges of your organization, building both personal capability and strategic integrity to drive change initiatives, manage crisis and ensure your organization is open to strategic opportunity. It also provides an introspective on your personal leadership style and capabilities to motivate and create energy through your work relationships.

Who Should Attend

The Positive Leader program is ideal for senior managers and executives who wish to drive positive results across the organization. Those also who are charged with strategic change initiatives, building effective organizational capability, or developing a senior team of effective leaders will also achieve both personal and strategic growth capability through participation.

Benefits of Attending

• Discover new ways to address strategic change and create organizational energy
• Actively participate in action learning to address your organizations strategic challenges from a POS perspective
• Challenge yourself and your organization to create energy that drives results
• Obtain the tools to build a positive leadership culture

Contact and Registration Info

Once you have registered for one of our programs, a unique registration number is assigned and an acknowledgement letter is sent within 3 working days. The participant will also receive a confirmation via e-mail within 3 working days, along with a softcopy of the invoice. This communication ensures that a place will be reserved for you in the program. Due to costs associated with establishing, holding, and refilling participant slots along with the associated costs of pre-course materials, the following cancellation charge schedule has been established. The program fee includes tuition, tea breaks & lunches, and all instructional materials. In order for you to have sufficient time to prepare the pre-reading materials and settle the program fee, we suggest sending us the registration at least 8 weeks prior to the program.

If You Need to Cancel

Cancellation fees are based on the number of weeks from the class start date your request is received. You must notify us of your cancellation in writing via email, fax, or postal mail. You may cancel six or more weeks prior to the start of a program without incurring a fee. Due to the inherent costs of establishing, holding, and refilling participant slots along with associated costs of pre-course materials, the following cancellation fee schedule applies:

- Two to six weeks prior to program start - 50% of program fee
- Within two weeks of program start - 100% of program fee

Transfer and Substitution Policy

We can accept transfers to an alternate program offering. All transfer notices must be received by email, fax, or mail before the start of the program. Transfer requests received within 2 weeks of the program start are subject to a US$250 transfer fee. Qualified substitutes for registrations can be accommodated with advance written notice. If you choose to defer or substitute your program fee to a future program session, that program must be attended or all funds previously paid will be forfeited. Only one deferral or substitution per registration is allowed and the new session must occur within one year of the original session date. Please note that 100 percent of the full tuition will be forfeited if one of the following occurs:

- The registrant does not enroll in another program within one year of the original start date
- The registrant has not requested a refund within one year of the original start date.
